Built circa 1920s this quintessentially Cairns home exudes character throughout with soaring timber lined ceilings and walls, stunning traditional casement windows and the original wide timber floors. This emotionally captivating timeless classic is possibly the first home in Aeroglen and is perfectly suited for your large or multi-generational family.

Downstairs is a rare find providing self-contained functionality by offering ample space for an extended family, teenagers retreat or guest accommodation, separately metered with two generous bedrooms, large lounge and dining area, kitchen, bathroom, separate entrance and rear patio for privacy and relaxation

- Upstairs immediately provides a sense of filtered light and space with its stunning high ceilings and casement windows throughout
- Charming French glass doors open to both the front and rear balconies and enhance the effect of gentle cooling breezes
- Central kitchen and dining are the absolute hub of the home with abundant storage and room for the whole family to gather and enjoy preparing and eating meals together
- Main bedroom offers a generous walk-in robe and private access to the rear balcony through yet another set of stunning French glass doors
- Large lounge room perfect for entertaining or relaxing with family flows out to the rear balcony which offers ample room for alfresco dining and overlooks the treetops, lovely low maintenance landscaped gardens and private tropical swimming pool
- Boasting magnificent well established mango, lychee and mangosteen trees that shade the side of the house, a Euodia tree that is reputed to attract the Ulysses butterfly, a mini nursery and potting sheds, you'll have endless time to simply relax and enjoy the garden.

With its convenient proximity to everything that Cairns has to offer including the city, beaches, sporting facilities and located in the catchment for some of the best schools in Cairns, you'll be totally spoilt for choice.
