Set on a family sized 736m², this lovingly maintained home is ready for an upsizing family or first home buyer to enjoy!

By the time you have made your way down the winding front path through the established gardens, and find yourself under the impressive bullnose verandah, you will feel the inviting warmth of a home that comprises:

- *Three large bedrooms all with built-in robes and ceiling fans.
- *Large central bathroom and separate toilet.
- *A spacious and open plan family room to kitchen/meals area.
- *A kitchen that comes fully equipped with electric stove, electric oven, plenty of cupboard space and a view to the backyard, and;
- *A well-appointed laundry room.

Outside, entertainers will delight in a full-length undercover area and a secure and generously proportioned rear yard, as well as a powered garden shed.

Other features include, gas ducted heating, split system air conditioning, polished floorboards, downlights, freshly painted both inside and out, and much more!

In addition, this charming clinker brick home is located within the Bayswater Secondary College and Bayswater South Primary school zones, and ideally situated within an easy walk to either Boronia or Bayswater stations, shops, cafes and services. If you are looking to get into the market or just need a home that better fits your growing family, then an inspection here is a must!
