CHARMING COTTAGE IN A SEASIDE TOWNSHIP AWAITS YOU!

Appealing from first glance this charming level home on 1012m2 (approx) parcel of land is simply delightful. The perfect abode for those looking to call home in the picturesque seaside township of Dunalley.

Having just undergone a makeover with new carpets and fresh paint, this classic 1930's home is full of character. With an updated kitchen, large living room, two bedrooms are large in size with the third ideal for a study and separate bathroom with walk in shower. Having a reverse cycle heat pump installed, you'll have all the creature comforts you desire.

An easy stroll to the Fish and Chip Shop, Historical Dunalley Hotel, Bakery, Post Office, Waterfront Café or take a fishing rod to the jetty along Denison Canal. The Primary School provides a friendly environment for new students in this community-minded small town.

Sit back on the front verandah and take advantage of being surrounded by beautiful waterways, restaurants and cafes serving the freshest of seafood this area offers.

Travel time is approximately 30 minutes to Sorell the major regional hub and 50 minutes to Hobart CBD.

Plenty of parking for the boat, tank water, with new windows and cladding in the future too! Offering a 12 month lease contact Racquel for your inspection today.
