EYE CAPTURING VIEWS!

This wonderful home is set in a very convenient location within walking distance to Healesville's main street. The large kitchen window with its easterly aspect gives you sensational mountain views overlooking the Healesville township. A fantastic home for raising a family or if you enjoy entertaining then this property is great for accommodating guests making for a very comfortable home to live in year-round. Enjoy views of the beautiful greenery & low maintenance established garden from every room allowing for a real sense of privacy.

The home sits on an approx. 1086m² block and comprises of three spacious bedrooms (two with BIR) and master bedroom with ensuite and walk in robe. The updated kitchen features a Caesar stone central island bench, dishwasher, gas cooktop with electric oven, ample storage, and bench space. There's a large dining/meals sitting adjacent to the kitchen where you can enjoy a nice meal whilst admiring the views. Other features of this home include a separate lounge room with open fireplace and a generous sized family room also with open fireplace. Downstairs you'll find two of the other three bedrooms plus an updated family bathroom with large shower. There's also another good-sized living room with gas heating for comfort during those colder months. There's split system R/C air-conditioning, exposed timber cathedral ceiling which adds loads of character to the home.

This property is certainly worth consideration for anyone seeking a comfortable, versatile home with magnificent views.
