JEEVES COTTAGE CIRCA 1920. FAMILY LIVING AT ITS BEST.

Please contact agent for inspection

This versatile lifestyle property offers opportunities for discerning buyers seeking family living at its best.

What makes this home special is its blend of old and new with a highly adaptable floor plan where all family members will have their own space.

Offering four bedrooms plus a study, multiple living spaces including large family room adjoining the light and bright kitchen, cosy formal living with fireplace and a master bedroom suite with private lounge ensuite and kitchenette.

All on a low-maintenance 1,205sqm (approx.) garden with 4 car garage and ample parking spaces, the list of features found here is unparalleled.

This weatherboard residence with a story steeped in Hills history is now ready for new owners to immerse themselves in this beautiful home.

It all started with the local Jeeves family who were one of the original hill's settlers growing over time to suit modern living requirements and will continue with your family enjoying the benefits of this amazing life style.

While ideally a family home, it would suit multi-generational living perfectly, with options for air BnB or separately renting out the rear of the home for added income.

At its heart, the gourmet kitchen with stone benchtops, gas range, and peninsula seating is framed by 2 impressive living areas with polished timber floors, ceiling panels, and ornate lighting, including a cosy wood fire, gas ducted heating, split system heating/cooling, and a luxurious bathroom with pressed tin shower surround and claw foot tub, this home is a sophisticated family oasis.

This home is fully fenced and set privately behind bluestone and iron gates.
