AROUND THE AREA

The town of Duranbah is located in the Tweed Shire on the north coast of New South Wales. Virtually undiscovered, Duranbah is certain to become one of the more desirable locations in which to live on the North Coast for the following reasons:

- Easy access to the M1
- Rural lifestyle but minutes to the golden sands of Kingscliff, Casuarina, Hastings - Point Beaches
- Tropical Fruit World, which has more than 500 kinds of tropical and rare fruits
- Epic Skate Rink which provides skating areas for roller derby, inline hockey and figure skating
- Highly respected Duranbah Primary School
- Scarcity of large acreage allotments so close the beach
- Kingscliff with its exciting cafe culture is only 7 km away
- Only 25 mins to eclectic Byron Bay
- Gold Coast International Airport is 20 mins away
