Welcome to a rare opportunity to own a dream lifestyle on 5.83 hectares of land in the stunning Tweed Valley in the Northern Rivers. This acreage/semi-rural property offers a unique blend of rural living, while still being close to modern amenities. Tyalgum village is just a 10 minute drive away for your coffee fix or a cool beer in the pool garden at the local pub. 20 minutes the other direction will have you enjoying the delights of Uki village with its market days and alternative vibe.

As you enter the property, you will be impressed by its expansive grounds, featuring secure car parking, as well as outdoor entertainment area and massive shed.

The property offers a solid, functional 3 bedroom, 1 bathroom home, filled with light and space. The home is blessed with a warm and inviting atmosphere, featuring an open fire place, broadband internet access and dishwasher. There is also a workshop / shed, perfect for those who enjoy a hands-on approach to home maintenance and repairs.

The property has been designed with the environment in mind, with the addition of solar panels and water tanks, making it an eco-friendly option for those looking for a sustainable lifestyle.

This is the perfect opportunity for those looking for a lifestyle change. This acreage/semi-rural property offers everything you could want in a home, from spacious living areas, to the convenience of modern amenities without the monthly bills, all within a picturesque location. With views to the Numinbah range, beautiful well established gardens and an array of fruit trees as well as a fernery which will provide you with additional income into the future this one should not be missed.

There is even a disused concrete water tank suitable for cellaring your favourite wines or getting that mushroom growing in full swing.
