A DELIGHTFUL BRICK HOME HIGH ON THE HILL!

This incredibly neat and functional three bedroom brick home is located in a frost free area and is set in low maintenance gardens that include a large mango and avocado tree.

The spacious north facing entertaining area is perfect for breakfast on the deck or a friendly bbq. This is a very comfortable home with built-in wardrobes in the bedrooms, kitchen and casual dining area as well as the ample storage in the sheds outside giving you the opportunity to put everything in its place and enjoy the views to the pretty country hills.

The home is well set out and includes a two way bathroom and laundry large enough to use as an office or spare bedroom. The lounge, dining and kitchen area have a recently installed reverse cycle system that keeps the temperature just to your liking.

The property is both secure and private, with a fully fenced back yard, security screens and a large cement floored shed with two roller doors and a personal door. In addition to the comfort and security features, this property also offers a water tank.

This "neat as a pin" Kingaroy house is in a community that combines charm with unique history and culture. Nestled in the heart of the South Burnett region, this is the perfect place to call home. Please contact me today to arrange an private inspection.
