FORGET BALI...

Every day here will have that holiday feel.

If you love outdoor living as much as indoor, fancy summers in the pool, winters in the spa, a bar so the party is always at your place and a fabulous home chicly renovated in key areas on a full site - none of that claustrophobic high density jazz - I doubt you'll find a home like this one elsewhere in Massey.

It's private. It's sunny. On the road front. There's a palm out front that waves hello when you arrive. It's situated at the end of reputable Cyclarama Crescent - a street that has long been one of Masseys best kept secrets. They even have a street Facebook page to keep the residents connected. If that doesn't say 'community', I don't know what does.

Indoors you have four good sized bedrooms, the master exceptionally large, ensuite equipped with a double shower and the bedroom enjoying direct access to a private patio. Perfect when mum and dad need a quiet moment away from the kids.

Family can relax together or separately if desired as there are two living areas - one kept cosy by a fireplace and the other by a heat pump. The hub of the home is contemporary, spacious and open plan, the colour palette neutral with a splash of the tropics. A modern kitchen with all the mod cons you'd expect will easily win the approval of the family chef and, yes, there is ample room for your double door fridge.

On the parking front there is a garage/workshop and plenty of OSP as well.

Packed with benefits. Winter is coming but definitely no winter blues here. A home that will grab you so suggest you grab it - before someone else does.

*Black metal framed glass balustrade beside pool yet to be installed.
