RENOVATED HIGHSET - WITH A LIFT!

Located in central Cranbrook, just a short drive from Stockland Plaza, across the road from Cranbrook State School and with the river close-by, is this lovely, and fully renovated high-set home on corner allotment of 501 sq.m.

One of the great features of this lovely home is the functioning water lift at the rear, meaning that people with low mobility can still easily access the upper floor.

The home has been freshly painted and there are beautifully polished hardwood timber floors throughout.

There are 3 bedrooms, a new kitchen and dining area that joins the living room to the front and an open and easily accessible bathroom.

Underneath the home there's a secure and lockable area that includes the laundry and the lift, there's a second toilet plus there is space for additional storage and entertaining.

(See the attached floorplan).

Buyers looking for a lovely renovated high-set home, with the benefits of lift access, should definitely check out what's available here.
