You will love coming home to this sanctuary situated just 10 minutes to the thriving village of Tyalgum and under 20 minutes to the arts inspired village of Uki in the glorious Northern Rivers. This very comfortable, welcoming home is totally off-grid and designed to sit at one with the nature surrounding it. Set on 12 acres of relatively low maintenance land with loads of fruit trees and a veggie garden means you are totally self-sufficient and far from the madding crowd. This is the perfect place to sit and contemplate a previous life in the rat race or to gaze upon the twinkling night sky as there is pretty much zero light pollution and why not do this from your very own skypod set a short walk from the home. This is unique and altogether delightful and must be inspected to be appreciated. Come live the easy life or use as your very own weekend escape. Call for an inspection today.
