KURRAJONG'S HISTORY & FUTURE

In 1957 Kurrajong Waratah opened its doors and its hearts to support people with disabilities and their families in the Riverina Murray region of NSW. Previously known as Yallabee, Kurrajong acquired a ten-acre parcel of land bordered by Napier and Ochtertyre Streets. Kurrajong now seek expressions of Interest in developing such land into a 29 lot Estate. - with the intent that all proceeds of the sale will go towards building four new assisted living homes - securing a better future for those with disabilities within our community.

We now welcome those who have a genuine interest to purchase or build a new home within the next two years as well as Housing Developers, who may be interested in erecting house and land packages to complete the following expressions of interest form. Kurrajong will analyse
