Entre
Built in 2013 as a display home to impress, this meticulously maintained family home is sure to appeal to those searching for more than average.

External
As you approach this house from the street, you can instantly tell that it's something special. The well-maintained front garden and decked front entry give a small glimpse of what to expect from this 510sqm easy-care block. The property features bold architectural statements that you wouldn't typically see in a 4x2 Harrisdale Home. You cannot help but be drawn to the back corner of this property as the rear alfresco catches your attention from within. With the landscaping complementing the building element perfectly, the backyard flows seamlessly from one zone to the next. Also, not to be forgotten is the oversized under-main roof alfresco with ceiling fans, perfect for entertaining family and friends throughout the year.

Essence
Double doors welcome you in as you meander through, you'll find yourself in a spacious entryway with high ceilings and a recessed feature nook that sets the tone for the rest of the house.

At the front of the home, you'll discover a large Master suite that occupies an entire wing of the house. With a roomy walk-in robe, double vanity with plenty of bench space, a huge shower recess, and a separate toilet.

The open-plan kitchen-family-meals area is the first of three living spaces and can comfortably accommodate even the largest of family gatherings. The clever use of windows and doors brings the outside in. The U-shaped kitchen and walk-through pantry are sure to impress the kitchen lovers.

The theatre room is currently being used as a gym but has the potential to be converted into a more formal or casual living area to suit your family's needs.

The third zone is an activity area with built-in storage, a desk, and plantation shutters. It's located
