IMMACULATE

This immaculate property has come on the market for sale. Located between the edge of the small town of Millaa Millaa and the local golf club, it is ideal for any golf enthusiast. It offers plenty of outdoor space with a large veranda and 2014 m2 of backyard. The 3 bedrooms offer sufficient room for any growing family.

Upon entering the home you can feel the style and comfort of this place. The beautifully polished wooden floor leads into the open plan living/dining area and further into the kitchen. An office and two very spacious bedrooms lead off the hallway whilst the high ceilings assure airflow throughout the home.

An undercover carpark area, capable of sheltering up to 4 cars is connecting the home with the garage that can also be used as a workshop or for storage.

Being on the edge of town, living here is calm and peaceful. The town centre and all the amenities, including the primary school are only walking distance away.
