CLASSIC QLD HOME ON UNDULATING ACREAGE

What a beautiful and versatile property this is. The charming and generous home is set on 80 acres of fertile land, with a good water supply and plenty of infrastructure. There are many features that make you feel at home the minute you walk into the home - from polished floors and a wood fire, to the north facing sun room you are taken back in time to where things were made to last and homes made you feel welcome. There are four good sized bedrooms, a large kitchen, central living area and an a formal dining room. The home is freshly painted on the outside and has quite a lot of updates inside as well. There are new sheds, old sheds and a a chook pen. The large dam is in the heart of the acreage and can be pumped up to a tank to gravity feed different areas of the property. This is the perfect spot to run a few head of cattle or some horses as there are yards and an arena handy to the house and sheds. Please contact me to arrange a private inspection but don't take to long because this property is great buying.
