Where Family Coastal Living, Work Life & Flexibility Unite

Are you looking for a relaxing hideaway? This home uniquely accommodates larger families or anyone seeking private, flexible living with the option for dual arrangements. It also serves as an ideal hub for home-based professionals. 116 Biggs Avenue, Beachmere, perfectly balances tranquil coastal living with functional design. Here is your opportunity to secure and elevate a quality family home amidst the sought-after lifestyle of Moreton Bay.

Positioned on a 632m2 parcel in a thriving community, this home offers a relaxed lifestyle defined by sea breezes, serene surroundings, and Beachmere's natural beauty. Enjoy glimpses of crystal-blue water from the front patio/ kitchen and a quick stroll to the water's edge. Thoughtful upgrades promote easy living, ideal for those valuing both privacy and connection under one roof.

Upstairs, the home offers a bright sanctuary, enclosed by all-weather aluminium shutters that surround the front patio, for secure indoor-outdoor living and the fresh, stunning coastal lifestyle you have been yearning for.

A spacious kitchen with a cafe-style servery forms the home's heart, connecting free-flowing dining and living to a rear verandah overlooking leafy serenity and glimpses of blue water from the front.

The master suite features a walk-in robe, ensuite, and verandah access for a pleasant breeze and sweet nature sounds. The second bedroom has built-in robes and a ceiling fan, conveniently located near the upgraded main bathroom. Ample storage and a separate restroom complete this level.

Downstairs, discover a sophisticated private retreat. Perfect for teenagers or those caring for additional loved ones. It features a separate multipurpose room with its own kitchenette and direct access to the outdoor entertaining area or gardens.

There are two additional bedrooms, currently used as home offices. Both are perfectly
