ACREAGE LIFESTYLE WITH DUAL LIVING!

Super convenient location to live off the grid in this Architecturally designed lowset home, that has been designed to take advantage of the Northern light, to keep you naturally cool in Summer and warm in Winter. As you drive through the impressive gated entrance, and down the grand circular driveway to the covered portico or 4 car garage, you'll feel a sense of luxury that only comes with living in such an exclusive location.

With 600 square meters of floor area, offering an abundance of space for you to create your own personal sanctuary, the exceptional layout allows for the family to enjoy their privacy or to come together for entertaining in style. Multiple living zones create a parents retreat at one end and a kids wing at the other end, with bedroom 2&3 close to the Rumpus room and endless possibilities for dual living or to produce an income renting out the 2 studio units, that are attached via a breezeway and can be accessed separately.

Character and warmth abounds throughout the home, with high raked ceilings and many architectural features setting this property a step above the competition. The chef of the family will love the extra large galley style kitchen comprising solid timber cabinetry and stone benchtops, ample storage and breakfast bar with a servery window to the alfresco entertaining area.
