Walk-in, Walk-out: A Timeless Treasure Awaits

If you are looking for a fresh start with a touch of nostalgia, 8 Cecily Street is the perfect home for you.

After 60 years, this charming abode has been lovingly maintained by its original owners, who now wish to pass on the flame to the next family. It's a place where memories are made and framed, ready to be sent straight to the pool room.

This home, with its impeccable build quality from a bygone era, features three spacious bedrooms and a pristine bathroom. The pool room, which includes a toilet and sink, offers versatile options – it can be a fourth bedroom or a teenager's retreat, providing a perfect space for growth and relaxation.

Nestled on a generous 970m² block, the property boasts a double lockup garage and a garden shed, ensuring ample storage for all your needs. Every piece of furniture and furnishing comes with the property, making it truly walk-in, walk-out ready.

You can see the quality craftsmanship in the cupboards that still close perfectly, and the enduring construction speaks to a time when homes were built to last two lifetimes. From the expansive yard to the multiple internal sitting rooms, this home offers endless possibilities to make it your own.

Stepping into 8 Cecily Street is like stepping into a treasure trove, with bits and bobs, knickknacks, and useful items throughout the house, all waiting to be discovered.

This castle has stood strong for half a century, raising children and witnessing a legacy in grandchildren. It has more love to give to a new generation, ready to create their own memories within its walls.
