Northern Rivers Property group presents Journeys End

This is the home where you can rest and relax confident that you have reached your destination. Walking distance to all the incredible things Murwillumbah has to offer like M-Arts precinct where artists and art come together , Kat Harvey cheese where the you will find the tastiest cheese toasties dripping with local produce as well as fantastic schools, decadent restaurants and yummy coffee.
This massive 37 square home lends itself to multiple living options for the extended family or boutique accommodation in the centre of town...set on a massive 1264m2 block with rear lane access there are so many options. Easily it could be split into 3 separate units and most of the areas already have kitchenettes and toilets or the ability to easily modify to fit these in.
It would be perfect for multi generational living or brilliant as an air bnb or extra income.
The house has so much character and has been lovingly renovated with on trend styling.
What are you waiting for?
