"DREAM CATCHER"

Located in the surrounds of Uki, this nearly 2 acre tropical oasis sits at the base of "Cloud Catcher" (Mount Warning / Wollumbin) and is a place where you can escape from the madding crowd and live out your dreams with an oh so comfortable Queenslander style home which exudes class and elegance. This is a place of tranquility and charm where you can conjure up your next artistic pursuit whether that be sitting on the spacious deck to compose your next musical piece or wander over the lawn to the bespoke artists studio and create! There is also a sparkling in-ground pool to unwind in comfort in those upcoming summer months. With views to Mount Warning you can enjoy the last rays of sunset in privacy and peace. There are rainwater tanks but being connected to the permanent Mount Warning Spring water line means you never have to worry about supply. You are just 5 minutes to the vibrant Northern Rivers Village of Uki and just 10 minutes to the bustling hub of Murwillumbah yet you will feel a million miles away in your own natural surrounds.

You need to inspect this one to truly appreciate the ambience.
