City Beach is Perth City's most central beachside suburb - directly due west of the City Centre. In an unexpected historical planning anomaly, it is also it's most spacious with approximately 50% parks and gardens and 5km of beachfront, featuring vibrant cafe strips, remote back beaches, two dog beaches and two rock groynes. 10% of the suburb is ocean side of the main road in the cool coastal hamlet known as South City Beach. "South City" is cradled against the shoreline by the vast green reserves of the Swanbourne army reserve the Cottesloe Golf Club, the majestic 1080 acre Bold Park bushland and the iconic beachfront City Beach Ovals.
