Lifestyle and Community

Rosewood, located in South East Queensland, is a charming and fast-growing suburb situated approximately 60 km west of Brisbane and 20 km west of Ipswich. Known for its welcoming community, semi-rural charm, and modern amenities, it appeals to families, retirees, and investors alike.

- A friendly, tight-knit community with a relaxed lifestyle.
- Combines the best of country living with urban conveniences.
- Regular community events and markets add vibrancy to the area.

Transport

- Served by the Rosewood Train Station, part of the Ipswich/Rosewood line, offering easy access to Brisbane.
 - Close to major highways, including the Warrego and Cunningham, for convenient travel by car.
- Rosewood is conveniently located near RAAF Base Amberley, one of Australia's largest Air Force bases. The base is approximately 15 km east of Rosewood, a short drive of about 10-15 minutes, depending on traffic.

This close proximity makes Rosewood an ideal location for RAAF personnel and their families, offering a peaceful, community-focused lifestyle while maintaining easy access to the base. It also contributes to a steady demand for rental properties in the area, appealing to investors.
