You will love coming home to this high set quality built timber home, situated tucked away on its very own 7+ acre sanctuary in nature at the top of a ridge just minutes to Uki village. There is a feeling of peace and serenity in this home with its wrap around deck affording a stunning vantage point to view magical Wollumbin (Mount Warning) in all its glory and its ever changing moods. Upon awakening after a restful sleep you will hear the sounds of birdsong as the morning mists rise to give way to a new day and a sun drenched vista in every direction. If a morning swim is your thing then the 18mtr lap pool is beckoning...what a way to start your day! Your rainforest gardens are an allure to the abundance of wildlife here including the resident black wallaby ("Wally") and a plethora of birds, including kookaburras, black and white cockatiels and rosellas. Take an afternoon walk on the rainforest path near the creek and enjoy some of your orchard harvest as you head back up the path to perhaps have an afternoon or early evening swim under the stars. This is a call to nature lovers who will feel a million miles away from the madding crowd yet still be handy to local amenity including the bustling Northern Rivers arts and food scene of Murwillumbah and the Gold Coast international airport.
