RURAL VIEWS, TOWN CONVENIENCE.

If you've been considering making the move from a larger property into town, but don't want to lose the feeling of space around you; this could be the home for you.

Situated on just over half an acre (2805m²) and only a short walk to the main street, this well presented four bedroom home is tucked in a treed setting down a private driveway, and overlooks attractive rural views.

The home offers a spacious open plan kitchen, meal and dual living/dining area which feature an updated kitchen with quality bench tops, on-trend light fittings, dishwasher and ample storage. This open living/kitchen area provide the ideal hub for families or entertaining guests, with a breakfast bar, Bluetooth surround sound and doors leading onto the large deck for taking in the views on one side and a sliding door to the covered outdoor BBQ area on the other. There's a choice of the wood fire and R/C inside, plus the cosy outdoor open fire.

The master bedroom is at the rear of the home, has a WIR, ensuite and overlooks the views. The three remaining rooms each have BIR's and are ideal for a growing families or guests. The master bathroom is sizeable, well appointed to the bedrooms and laundry and boasts a separate shower and bath.

A double carport provides direct entry into the house, plus a big "tick" on many people's list is the double colourbond workshop for added storage (approx 9m x 6m). The garden surrounds are picturesque and a combination of water features, lawn, established plants and autumnal trees.

This is a hidden gem with lots of attractive features, all within minutes from town and your inspection is invited.
