BEACH RESIDENCE ON 1,047M² ALLOTMENT

This unique beachfront residence with huge wraparound verandas has lots of charm and character with timber features throughout. Located in a tightly held and prestigious area on Coast Road is only a few houses down from Sandpiper Beach. When you feel like being more social you can easily walk to the Boat Club, the soon to be completed Arts Complex and Macleay Island Bowls Club. This home has truly impressed us with its style, space, versatility, and exclusive beachside location. Lifestyle and investment opportunity abounds for the discerning buyers.

From the moment you enter this home you will be mesmerised by the stunning water views and the feel of the cool ocean breezes. The generously scaled kitchen was renovated a few years ago to include modern appliances, dishwasher, ample storage. Imagine cooking up a storm while enjoying the breathtaking water views through the large kitchen windows. The spacious combined living and dining room has high ceilings, French windows and doors all connecting to the outside undercover waterfront deck. The perfect space for everyday living, entertaining family or gathering of friends. Children and pets will love playing on the expansive picturesque, grassed lawns and your own white sandy beach. Launch your boat, catch a crab, watch a sunset and just enjoy the everchanging marine vista.

Downstairs also has two bedrooms with built-in-robos, waterfront sunroom, main bathroom and a huge entry foyer. Upstairs is the master bedroom with ensuite, walk-in-robe, study nook and French doors opening onto a private Verandah overlooking the beach. On this level there is a large rumpus room and two other rooms. The space is ideal for those who work from home or need a dedicated space for their hobbies. All the rooms are versatile and would lend itself to endless family living opportunities. The floor plan best describes the layout of the home. Check out the video link https://youtu.be/Sxq_dp54cLM
