ANOTHER PRESTIGE BUDERIM PROPERTY SOLD BY TRUDI GOWER

Buderim is classed as one of the Sunshine Coasts premier addresses, offering some of the best acreage properties central to the private school precinct, and within minutes of lovely beaches. With this in mind, it takes something quite special to stand out from the crowd.

Welcome to 59 Jorl Court, this property is one of a select few that Buderim locals talk about as being the best in the area, and even with its eye catching and expansive street presence, few have actually had the opportunity to see how much it does have to offer. Built in a way to show that this home is timeless and fitting to its environment, its true secret is the privacy and seclusion to the outside world provided by a clever layout design.

As you enter the house itself, the enormity of it hits you, and as large and open as the plan is, you still retain that beautiful homely warmth with rich timber floors throughout. This is complemented by the French provincial style kitchen inclusive of a butlers pantry, wine fridge and all the amenities that would be fitting for a property of this stature. Combine this with the large open living area that opens to the wide wrap veranda to your private
