BE THE VERY FIRST TO SEE THE SUN EVERYDAY....

An exclusive, once in a lifetime opportunity to purchase and own a substantial landholding in the heart of Gisborne.

From the minute you pull off the main road, through the private gates and you begin to meander up the driveway be transported straight to the country with rolling green pastures, pines and the occasional horse!

As you take the final corner you are immediately welcomed by the most incredible panoramic vistas out across the ocean with unimpeded views to Young Nicks head and as far as the eye can see. Or, turn around and look right across the city.

Multiple potential building platforms will give you plenty of options here whether its one or more houses, or batches. Currently being used for grazing, the property comes with a temporary shelter and storage via 2x 20ft containers. Fully fenced boundaries.

With 2 prestigious completed homes, 2 under construction on neighbouring sites and only one other smaller site left at this location this is the only opportunity available to secure a significant land holding in the city, with world-class views that will guarantee that you will be the first to see the sun rise, every single day!

With nothing else like this available in the market, it is an option that will not be available for long!
