BE QUICK FOR THIS ONE!

Unmolested and ready for a make-over!

Although perfectly liveable and well maintained, this home is screaming out to be brought up to date. The timber and tiled construction clad beautiful hardwood that just can't be purchased today. Splash some paint around, remove the old carpet and polish the timber floors and you would be well on your way.

Internally, the central kitchen has served well over the years as the family hub with a family room extension ensuring everyone has their own space.

Side access to the 3 bay shed will be every mans dream and the area under the home features a second toilet and offers further scope for workshop facilities, teenagers retreat or entertaining.

Huge potential, feature packed and priced to meet the market! Call Mike to inspect today.
