Situated within an easy stroll to the waterfront, Redcliffe restaurants and cafes, Bluewater Square shopping precinct, Settlement Cove Lagoon and transport - This property has the best of the Peninsula all within easy reach.

Internally the unit is currently undergoing a renovation that will include a new kitchen and bathroom, along with a freshen-up of the paintwork. These works will be finished by the end of April.

Comfort is assured year-round with a new split system air-conditioner and a large private courtyard can be accessed by a sliding door from the lounge room. The garage offers plenty of room for additional storage and the complex's landscaped gardens are well maintained. Call or email mike for further information.
