A PLACE TO RELAX

This lush 60.26 ha rainforest block is located along the Millaa Millaa waterfall circuit on the beautiful Atherton Tablelands. An area has been cleared for a dwelling to be established along the front of the property with a small shack already build. Old logging tracks can be found within the forest, leading down to the creek which is meandering throughout the property supplying crystal clear water. The property is flat to undulating and offers endless opportunities to relax, explore or just enjoy having your own piece of paradise.
