HILLTOP COUNTRY LIVING WITH MILLION-DOLLAR VIEWS — PRICED TO MOVE

Set above the rolling hills, this elevated property delivers the lifestyle many chase but few secure. Panoramic horizons, total privacy, and land that actually works — all coming to market with motivated sellers and realistic pricing.

Wedgetail Hills — Where Freedom Still Exists

Somewhere between the pressure of the city and the dream of open country, there's a place most people never find. This is that place.

High on the ridgeline, wedgetail eagles circle overhead as the sun rises across Ipswich and sinks behind Toowoomba. The views are vast. The air is clean. And the noise of the world simply... disappears.

This is not just a property. It's a reset.

A Life That Finally Makes Sense

Imagine waking without alarms. No traffic. No crowds. Just space — for your family, your animals, your business, and your future.

Here, children grow up outdoors. Dogs run free. Horses are saddled at sunrise. Evenings are spent watching the sky change colour from your own hilltop — a daily reminder that you chose a different life.

Built for Living — Not Just Looking At

The home is warm, practical, and made for real family life. It's the kind of place where memories are made easily — Sunday lunches, muddy boots at the door, laughter drifting across the yard. Comfortable year-round, it supports the lifestyle outside it, rather than competing with it.
