This is one of those very special 'have to be experienced' offerings to you, where you can completely be transported, and experience decadence forever. Expect to lose yourself in the exquisitely designed floor plan and the stunning sensory botanical magic of the landscaped gardens. If it is important where you live, and it is important how you live, you are invited to experience the elegance and sophistication of this lovely family home as it gently unfolds, introducing itself to you.

The large-scale, staggered entry stairs to the property, host the beautiful gardens bathed in Ornamental Pear trees, Japanese Maples, Liriope shrubbery, Agapanthus plantations, and a mature feature Robinia 'Mop Top' shade tree. The rambling verandah welcomes family and guests through to the entrance gallery, which is where your breath is taken away.

The elegance of the design immediately becomes evident in a magnificent, sumptuous display of staged, open plan living. The masterful living room to the north commands attention and is washed in natural light through large double glazed glass windows and door panels. The dining room, with French Patio door external access and views out to the beautiful gardens, is featured alongside the stunning, entertainer's kitchen, with an extravagant central stone island, presenting additional meals and dining, and drawer and cabinet joinery.

Perfectly placed off the exquisite kitchen, through glass sliding doors, a covered, 20m2 (approx.) alfresco terrace with timber decking, sits amongst the open, lawned, and private garden setting, with pool table and table and chairs, for wonderful, friends and family, social gatherings.

The bedrooms are placed along the hall, immersed in beautiful new carpet flooring, with built-in robes and are serviced by the main bathroom with a separate bath set in tiles and a separate shower.
