A CHARACTER-RICH COTTAGE FOR THOSE WHO APPRECIATE THE UNIQUE

Forget cookie-cutter conformity. This extraordinary 4-bedroom, 2-bathroom cottage at 7 Morey St, North Wonthaggi, is a manifesto in bricks and mortar—a 148m² sanctuary for those who color outside the lines of conventional living. Relocated from Melbourne seventeen years ago and reimagined with creative vision, this home has been thoughtfully transformed into something truly special.

Where Bold Meets Beautiful

Step into a kitchen that throws design rules out the window with glorious abandon. Vibrant cobalt blue cabinetry clashes magnificently with warm terracotta walls, while a premium 900mm Falcon range (a significant investment the owners thoughtfully made) and French Chambord porcelain sink prove that functionality and flair aren't mutually exclusive. The intuitive layout makes daily life a pleasure, whether you're preparing a quick breakfast or orchestrating an elaborate dinner party. This isn't just a kitchen—it's a statement piece that says you refuse to blend in, and it's the space the current owners will miss most.

Curated Chaos, Perfectly Orchestrated

Every corner of this home whispers stories of creative rebellion. Soaring 12-foot ceilings create an unexpected microclimate—amplifying the sense of possibility while naturally cooling the home in summer's heat. The lounge and kitchen are bathed in natural light throughout the day, creating spaces so luminous they've become the heart of family life. Polished timber floors provide the perfect stage for your eclectic treasures, while five-year-old up-cycled lighting fixtures add character overhead. Four generously proportioned bedrooms offer blank canvases for your wildest interior fantasies, each with built-in wardrobes providing clever storage solutions. The well-thought-out floor plan includes surprising versatility—a nook next to the laundry offers multiple uses, while the garage accommodates everything from bikes to a full workshop setup. It's the kind of home where guests consistently remark on the overall feeling of comfort and authenticity.
