- The first brand-new property to come onto the market on the South City Beach waterfront in around 20 years
- One of only four landholdings of the 27 on the front row that are big enough to build a house of this size and scale
- The big landholding enabled the home to be designed in a U shape so that you did not see any neighbours and all windows are focused on the central cascading network of pool and spas and the ocean beyond.
- The second closest home on the oceanfront strip of 27, to the highly sought after and tightly held groyne and cafe precinct

This is truly rare real estate.
