SPECTACULAR VIEWS. SUMMER DIPS.

A timeless '70s classic in an exceptional position — it's little wonder my sellers chose to call this special spot home for decades.

Here's why I think you'll love it too.

The View

Enjoyed from both the living and dining, the outlook is nothing short of spectacular — a sweeping panorama of city, harbour and Sky Tower that changes with the light. Morning, midday or night — it's a view that never gets old. The photos can't do it justice; this one needs to be seen in person to be fully appreciated.

The Layout

Designed for easy living, the layout just works. Bedrooms sit quietly to the rear, while open-plan living makes the most of the view. Downstairs, a generous rumpus connects effortlessly to the pool area — perfect for entertaining or quiet relaxation. There's even a second toilet off the garage for convenience.

The Lifestyle

Solid brick and block bones, three roomy sunlit bedrooms, and an inviting pool for those summer dips. Framed by flower beds and a rear garden that is a hidden haven with fruit trees, lawn and veggie boxes — plus a couple utility sheds for the green-thumbed. Garaging is exceptional: a high-stud double internal access plus a large detached single for hobbies, projects, or prized possessions.

The Location

Walk to the local shops, or be on the motorway in minutes. Westgate, Northwest Shopping Centre and Costco are all close at hand — convenience wrapped in a peaceful, elevated setting.

One of a kind — and a type of property rarely available. See it early; homes with this combination of view, space, garaging and privacy are always in high demand.

I look forward to showing you through.
