FINALLY ROOM TO BREATHE

If you've outgrown your current home, 143a Reed Crescent is the space upgrade you've been waiting for. Set on a sprawling 2,277sqm block in one of Wonthaggi's most sought-after streets, this property offers something rare: genuine room for your family to grow.

A generous concrete driveway—complemented by extensive paving around most of the home—winds through landscaped gardens, leading to a home that immediately feels different. Light-filled, open, and designed for real family living. Step inside and there's space that doesn't just look good; it works hard for busy households.

Expansive windows frame the garden views from every room, and the thoughtful dual-living layout means everyone gets their own zone – perfect for when teenagers need independence or extended family visits.

Space Where It Counts

Approximately 10 years ago, this home underwent a complete transformation—a full renovation that included rewiring and re-plumbing the entire house, new bathrooms, laundry, and kitchen, Colorbond fascia boards downstairs, and a full Colorbond roof replacement. The result is a home with the character of established living and the reliability of modern infrastructure.

The kitchen is built for family life – generous benches, ample storage, a proper butler's pantry, and a layout that lets everyone gather without getting in each other's way. Three spacious bedrooms and two bathrooms mean no more bathroom negotiations. The master suite is a proper retreat with an ensuite and peaceful garden views.

Modern convenience extends throughout with an integrated data system—all TVs and cameras hardwired via Ethernet, plus three ceiling-mounted Ubiquiti access points ensuring seamless Wi-Fi coverage in every corner of the home.
Room to Play and Entertain

Outside, your children have room to actually be children. A custom-built playground and cubby house are built-in features, while sweeping lawns offer space for footy, trampoline, and adventure. The fully fenced property, secured with high-quality steel-post fencing built to last, provides peace of mind for families with young children or pets.
