9.5 ACRES, LARGE QUEENSLANDER, 5 MINUTES FROM BLACKBUTT!

Escape the rat race with this gorgeous lifestyle property that has more space than most people could ever dream of.

Set back 250m from the bitumen, this private and peaceful colonial style home sits on a generous block with development potential, room for animals, hobbies, and endless lifestyle opportunities.

This beautiful large Queenslander was relocated to the property in 1993 and sits on solid concrete stumps.

This property is a blank canvas with serious potential for those seeking a large property while being close to town and services. This property could also suit developers, being 9.5 acres with dual road frontages, and nearby subdivisions to the east and west.

The home sits on concrete stumps and has high ceilings and ornate trimmings throughout. Featuring four oversized bedrooms, lounge and dining rooms, plus a rumpus room for the family to spread out. Main bedroom is air-conditioned, and there's a front and back verandah to enjoy the bush views.

The kitchen is practical with a big pantry, electric stove, and plenty of room to cook. With a fireplace, good condition bathroom, high ceilings, polished timber floors, fresh paint throughout, separate laundry, and French doors, this place has serious character and charm.

Outside, you'll find:

A Kubota 4x4 tractor - included with the property.

2 sheds and carports

Concrete underground 22,000L water tank plus extra water tanks

4 BED | 1 BATH | 2 CAR
