A rare and highly versatile property offering exceptional flexibility in one of Hamilton East's most tightly held pockets. Operating successfully as a well-known guest house since 1989, this substantial residence presents an outstanding opportunity for owner occupiers, investors, developers seeking scale, zoning and future upside.

Set on a 449sqm R3 Medium Density Residential allotment, the property offers multiple pathways forward (STCA) - continue the existing accommodation use, explore redevelopment potential, or repurpose as a large family home.

The dwelling is generous in proportion and functionality, featuring seven bedrooms, two oversized bathrooms, a central communal kitchen and living area, and a large outdoor entertaining space ideal for shared living or residential conversion. Practical inclusions such as solar panels and an external laundry further enhance appeal.

Positioned in a high-profile Hamilton East location, the property is within easy walking distance to cafes, local shops, public transport and key amenities, ensuring ongoing demand and strong long-term growth.
