Are you sick of seeing tiny, narrow townhouses? Then you need to come and view this one.

Overseas is calling and our vendor says "SELL".

If you're looking for a stylish, low-maintenance and affordable family home, look no further!

This stunning weatherboard home offers the perfect blend of modern comfort and classic charm. What sets this property apart is the spacious interior - It's light, bright and airy with plenty of space for the whole family to spread out.

Everything has been done for you here. With new carpet and paint throughout, all you have to do is move in. Downstairs, the open-plan living flows seamlessly to the spacious, sunny & private private patio, creating a fantastic place to entertain or simply relax. A guest toilet on this level offers added convenience for family and friends.

Upstairs, three generous bedrooms, including master with an ensuite awaits.

The property is tucked away near the end of a right of way in a safe and quiet community.

With internal access garaging plus off-street parking, commuting is a breeze. The location is unbeatable, with Sturges Road train station just a short stroll away, a bus stop by the driveway and excellent schools & shops nearby.
