1 ACRE BLANK CANVAS IN VETERAN - BUILD YOUR DREAM

Step into your slice of rural paradise on this expansive 4,001 square metre block at 103 Old Veteran Road, ideally positioned within the heart of Veteran's sought-after residential precinct. This generous parcel of land offers endless possibilities for those dreaming of creating an ideal country lifestyle, just 8 kilometres from Gympie's vibrant centre.

Nestled within one of Queensland's most desirable rural residential localities, this property provides an exceptional canvas for building your dream home amid the tranquility of country living. The substantial land size allows space for all your aspirations, whether that includes designing an architecturally inspired residence, establishing landscaped gardens, or creating a private rural retreat.

Veteran is renowned for its peaceful rural character, where rolling landscapes meet a welcoming community spirit. The area strikes a perfect balance between country charm and convenient access to urban amenities, making it ideal for families seeking space to grow or professionals desiring a serene escape from city life.

Property highlights include:

- * Expansive 4,001 square metre allotment
- * Rural residential zoning with excellent building potential
- * Peaceful country setting within an established neighbourhood
- * Easy access to Gympie for all essential services

The location offers outstanding convenience, with Gympie's comprehensive facilities only minutes away, including shopping centres, medical services, and recreational amenities. Families will appreciate the proximity to quality educational options, with Gympie East State School, Gympie West State School, and St Patrick's Catholic School all close by, while secondary schooling is available at Gympie State High School, Victory College and James Nash State High School.
