A BRAND-NEW HOME, READY TO MOVE IN

Be the first to make this brand-new home your own. From the outset, it feels straightforward and welcoming - drive directly into the carpeted double garage or follow the level path to the covered front door.

Inside, the home feels fresh and well considered. Soft neutral tones and plush carpet add warmth, while the layout flows naturally with no wasted space. The kitchen and dining area bring people together naturally, with plenty of space to cook, eat and socialise. A generous breakfast bar with integrated sink adds versatility, and a nearby scullery keeps clutter out of sight. The adjoining living room feels connected yet distinct, opening through stacker doors to the outdoors - well suited to summer evenings, quiet mornings, and everything in between.

The primary bedroom is positioned at the end of the hall, offering privacy along with a walk-in wardrobe, ensuite and direct outdoor access. Two further bedrooms are well proportioned with good storage and share a stylish family bathroom with both bath and shower. A separate toilet with its own handbasin is a small but practical detail that makes daily life easier.

As a new build, the home is well oriented for all-day sun and benefits from double glazing, full insulation and a heat pump to keep things comfortable year-round.

Outside, the fenced section is easy to manage yet still offers room to enjoy. There's space to potentially create a dog run along the side boundary, while the long stretch of lawn invites backyard cricket, play or simply time outdoors. Plenty of off-street parking is available, whether for cars, a trailer or a caravan. Set down a private lane, the setting feels peaceful and removed, while Mosgiel's shops, schools, and amenities are still within easy driving distance.

Enjoy a modern, relaxed way of living in this well-built home, which will suit a range of buyers. This new subdivision is gaining momentum, with number 8 recently sold and a family now settled into number 12. Viewing is recommended.
