FLOW, FUNCTION AND A FEELING OF HOME

Have you been searching for a home that simply fits — not just in size, but in the way it lives? With light-filled spaces that flow effortlessly, thoughtfully positioned private zones and multiple living areas anchored by clever storage, this is a home that feels intuitive, comfortable and quietly complete from the very first step inside.

Inside, you will love how light, bright finishes wrap around its free-flowing floor plan. Air conditioning throughout ensures year-round comfort, while the layout itself moves with an easy rhythm from one space to the next.

From the front door, the entry guides you into the heart of the home while offering a connection to both the master bedroom and the front living room. Positioned at the front, this separate lounge is generously sized and adorned by exposed timber beams overhead. Multiple windows draw in an abundance of natural light, creating a space that feels equally suited to lively gatherings as it does to more intimate moments with family.

The master bedroom enjoys quiet placement toward the front of the home, complete with a walk-in robe flanked by two additional robe sections — a storage solution that feels both functional and indulgent. Bedroom two sits conveniently close to the bathroom and laundry and includes a built-in wardrobe.

The centrally located bathroom offers a bathtub and separate shower, giving you the freedom to choose between a long, relaxing soak or a quick, refreshing rinse depending on the mood. The laundry itself offers direct external access — a thoughtful touch that makes everything feel that little bit easier - from hanging out the washing to muddy shoes and busy days.

Toward the rear, daily life unfolds in an open-plan setting where kitchen, dining and living blend seamlessly. The kitchen anchors the space with a sink, dedicated fridge space, cooktop and pantry, all thoughtfully integrated to keep the home chef inspired. The dining area connects naturally, before opening into a spacious rear living zone embraced by windows that cascade abundant natural light throughout the day.

With seamless living zones, great storage throughout and a single car space completing the picture, this is a low-maintenance home that never sacrifices comfort or convenience. Make it yours today!
