ASKING PRICE $575,000

Motivated vendors are relocating to England and are not here to test the market — this property must be sold.

No fluff — this is your genuine chance to secure a great home.

Solidly constructed in timeless brick and tile, this fantastic property is the perfect opportunity for first-home buyers, families, or savvy purchasers looking for comfort, security, and easy living.

Offering three generously sized bedrooms, a spacious lounge, and a well-planned open kitchen and dining area, the home provides plenty of room for everyday living and entertaining.

Positioned on a quiet rear section, tucked away from the main street, you'll love the added sense of privacy, safety, and peace — ideal for kids and pets to play freely. The double garage delivers excellent parking and storage, while the outdoor area is made for BBQs, family time, and relaxed weekends.
