Set privately back from the road on a beautifully landscaped section, this impressive four-bedroom, two-bathroom home offers the perfect blend of comfort, space, and lifestyle living. Surrounded by space, established gardens and expansive lawns, the property provides a peaceful retreat while delivering exceptional indoor–outdoor flow designed for relaxed family life and effortless entertaining.

A sweeping driveway welcomes you to the home, offering generous off-street parking alongside the double internal access garage. Originally built with a third garage, this space has been thoughtfully converted into a versatile studio — ideal as a home gym, office, or creative workspace depending on your needs.
