ON THE EDGE OF TOWN

Set on 1,047m² of land at the edge of town, this unique property offers a relocatable dwelling that provides comfortable and practical living. The home features a kitchenette, living space, and a well-appointed bathroom, making it ideal for a variety of uses.
Attached to the dwelling is a 5m x 5m steel-framed, lockable shed set on a concrete slab, providing secure storage or workshop space. The property also includes an outdoor sitting area, previously used as a cattery.
The home is connected to mains power and town water, and a new septic system has recently been installed for added convenience.
At the rear, the property borders a council reserve with a running creek, offering a peaceful natural outlook and added privacy.
Located in a quiet area within walking distance to the local school, amenities, and essential services, this property presents a rare opportunity for those seeking a small, low-maintenance lifestyle.
