TIMELESS CLASSICAL ELEGANCE

Steeped in history and nature's beauty, the old Convent on the hills of Candelo stands high above the charming village.

St Mary McKillop established her convent St Joseph in 1898 here in Candelo, a divinely inspired pioneer women who worked tirelessly to establish education for children in remote rural Australia. Her spirit of compassion, dedication and quiet determination remains woven into the story of this remarkable residence. It is a place where history is not simply remembered, but genuinely felt. This is the atmosphere and true legacy of this residence!

The combination of federation and gothic architecture sits deep in the bricks. Inside the high ceilings, spacious rooms, open fire places welcome you to be embraced by her generous elegance and timeless tranquillity. A residence of rare character, timeless elegance and remarkable historical significance.

A captivating combination of Federation elegance and Victorian Gothic Revival architecture, the residence reveals its rich heritage through magnificent double-brick construction, graceful Gothic windows, decorative iron lacework and exquisite period detailing.

Step inside and be embraced by soaring ceilings, generously proportioned rooms, beautiful timber floors and inviting open fireplaces. There is a sense of warmth and serenity throughout, an atmosphere of gracious living that has endured for more than a century.

Thoughtfully modernised kitchens and bathrooms complement the home's historic character, providing contemporary comfort without compromising its architectural soul.

Set amongst established gardens on approximately 2,614m², the residence enjoys an elevated position with picturesque views across the surrounding countryside. Here, the beauty of nature and the peaceful rhythm of village life create an idyllic sanctuary.

With three spacious bedrooms, two bathrooms, generous living spaces and accommodation for three vehicles, the property offers a wonderful opportunity to enjoy a truly distinctive lifestyle.

Whether imagined as an exceptional private residence, an inspiring creative retreat or a place to welcome family and friends, the Old Convent offers something increasingly rare — a home with
