- Fully fenced property ensures privacy and safety for children and pets
- Private courtyard offers the perfect space for outdoor relaxation and entertaining

Hampton Park has evolved into one of Melbourne's most sought-after family destinations, just 36 kilometres from the CBD. The suburb's rich multicultural community creates a vibrant neighbourhood atmosphere, while excellent transport links including regular buses to Lynbrook and Hallam railway stations make commuting a breeze. Families will appreciate being walking distance to Hampton Park's bustling town centre on Hallam Road, home to the local library, community hall, and Woolworths-anchored shopping centre.

The educational opportunities are outstanding with Hampton Park Secondary College and five primary schools within the area, ensuring quality schooling options right on your doorstep. Whether you're grabbing groceries from the convenient Pound Road shopping precinct with Aldi and specialty stores, or enjoying weekend activities at Robert Booth Reserve with its football ground and tennis facilities, everything you need is within easy reach.

- Town water connected since 1961 with reliable infrastructure
- Multiple churches and community groups foster strong neighbourhood connections
- Growing area with established amenities and continuing development
