31 ISIS STREET, BUXTON, QLD, 4660

NEAT AS A PIN RESIDENCE TO CALL HOME

Welcome to 31 Isis Street, Buxton – this idyllic fishing village retreat, perfect for weekenders, retirees, or the perfect RV base. This near-new, one-bedroom raised home sits on an 809m² corner block with dual street access and bitumen frontage, providing convenience and privacy. Enjoy year-round comfort with air conditioning in both the bedroom and living area, solar to grid power (7.6KW) with grid connection, a backup generator point, and NBN.

The quirky kitchen and open living space flows seamlessly to a rear entertainment area, while the combined bathroom/laundry is designed for practical living. Parking is a breeze with a 6x9m insulated storage shed (with large A/C), a 6x9m carport, and additional laydown area for your van or trailer.

Established gardens, rainwater tanks, and colourbond fencing enhance the tranquil private setting. Enjoy privacy and security with tinted windows and doors, handrails, and security screens. The dream we all been chasing, the quiet fishing/crabbing lifestyle with an easy to maintain residence to call home.
