FOR RENT RURAL ESCAPE, 2BR SEMI-RURAL HOME

Escape to rural tranquility on this expansive 1.27-hectare semi-rural haven at 554 Serpentine Creek Road, Redland Bay. This charming 2-bedroom, 1-bathroom double-storey home offers the perfect blend of country living and modern convenience, just 35 kilometres from Brisbane's bustling city centre.

Step inside this thoughtfully designed 266 square metre residence featuring a spacious rumpus room perfect for family gatherings or entertaining friends. The double-storey layout maximizes both privacy and functionality, while the rural aspect ensures you wake up to breathtaking countryside views every morning. Natural light floods through the home, creating a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout.

The outdoor lifestyle opportunities are truly exceptional on this fully fenced property. Multiple sheds provide ample storage for all your equipment and hobbies, while the expansive deck and balcony create ideal spaces for morning coffee or evening barbecues. An eco-friendly water tank ensures sustainable living, making this property both environmentally conscious and cost-effective.

Car enthusiasts and tradespeople will appreciate the remarkable 6-car garage accommodation – a rare find that offers endless possibilities for vehicle storage, workshop space, or business operations. The generous land area provides room for horses, market gardens, or simply the freedom to roam your own private sanctuary.

Redland Bay's rich heritage as a farming and fishing community continues to define its character today. This coastal locality offers a unique blend of rural charm and modern amenities, with the added bonus of being a gateway to the beautiful bay islands including Russell Island, Macleay Island, and North Stradbroke Island. The area's famous red soil, derived from ancient volcanic activity, creates the perfect foundation for growing your own produce or establishing beautiful gardens.

Family life flourishes in this well-established community with quality educational options nearby. Redland Bay State School and the newly opened Scenic Shores State School provide excellent primary education, while secondary schooling is available at Victoria Point State High School
