PARKSIDE POTENTIAL AT THE END OF A QUIET COURT

INSPECTIONS BY APPOINTMENT ONLY – ENQUIRE NOW TO ARRANGE YOURS!

Set at the end of a quiet court abutting Kiloran Park, this original three bedroom home presents an exciting opportunity for renovators, first home buyers, flippers and those looking for land with future potential.

The existing home is in need of renovation, but offers a practical single-level layout with three bedrooms, a central bathroom, separate laundry and a generous living and dining area with timber floors, fireplace and garden outlooks. The kitchen is largely original, giving buyers the chance to update, redesign or completely reimagine the home to suit their own style and needs.

Set on approximately 863m², the property provides a rare sense of space, established trees, a broad rear yard and easy rear access, creating excellent flexibility for trades, storage, landscaping or future planning.

For those looking beyond renovation, there may also be potential to subdivide in the future, subject to council approval and the removal of the existing single dwelling covenant on title. Buyers should make their own enquiries regarding any proposed development or covenant removal.

With Kiloran Park at the rear, a quiet court position and easy access to local shops, schools, public transport and the wider Kilsyth/Montrose area, this is a property with genuine upside for buyers prepared to do the work.
